It was just too easy to do one of these given the online frenzy of homages to the "Shit Girls Say" video. So here is mine as this week's installment of Racergirl TV.

I had fun with this but now that I have done it there are so many more that I would add and so many things I would do differently. However, the naming of the bikes is the first on the list because after MANY years of bike racing, it was only when I came into triathlon that I even HEARD of naming your bike something other than the manufacturer chose for you :).

Also, I totally appreciate all the fun ideas for new episodes. Please SUBSCRIBE to my YOUTUBE Channel: <http://www.youtube.com/user/racergirlmel?feature=mhee>. Thanks for watching!!

Anyways, I love the comments with more additions to this list. Keep them coming. All in good fun!
